

Are You A Right Wing Extremist?

By: B.A. Brooks

Thank you for reading my eBook: "Are You A Right Wing Extremist?". The information within these pages will show the reader that much of the leadership within our police and military machine want to demonize anyone who questions authority. The 3 actual reports revealed within this eBook is shocking and a good look at what real police state propaganda looks like. Welcome to 1984! Go to The United American Freedom Foundation at: <http://www.uaff.us> for breaking news and constant updates on the patriot movement and other alternative news from around the world.

The Modern Militia Movement

Modern Militia Movement:

The Militia Movement began in the 1980's and reached its peak in 1996. Several social, economic, and political factors contributed to the surge in militia participation in the 1990's. The primary motivator for the movement was the farm crisis of the 1980's, which caused the destruction of 3/4 of a million small to medium size family farms. Overall, 11 million Americans lost their jobs during this time period.

Academics contend that female and minority empowerment in the 1970s and 1960s caused a blow to white male's sense of empowerment. This, combined with a sense of defeat from the Vietnam War, increased levels of immigration, and unemployment, spawned a paramilitary culture. This caught on in the 1980's with injects such as Tom Clancy novels, Soldier of Fortune Magazine, and movies such as Rambo that glorified combat. This culture glorified white males and portrayed them as morally upright heroes who were mentally and physically tough.

It was during this timeframe that many individuals and organizations began to concoct conspiracy theories to explain their misfortunes. These theories varied but almost always involved a globalist dictatorship the "New World Order (NWO)", which conspired to exploit the working class citizens. United Nations troops were thought to already be operating in the United States in support of the NWO. Much of this rhetoric would become anti-Semitic claiming that the Jews controlled the monetary system and media, and in turn the "Zionist Occupied government (ZOG)". The Militia of Montana (MOM) became a key organization in pushing rightwing rhetoric and informing individuals on how to form militia organizations.

A series of incidents in the early 1990's caused a surge in militia participation. The 1992 standoff between federal authorities and the Weaver family at Ruby Ridge, Idaho became a spark for the movement. On August 14, 1992, a 12 day standoff began that would result in the death of one federal agent and the wife and son of Randy Weaver. The following February, a 51-day siege would occur at the Branch Davidian compound in Waco, Texas, resulting in the death of 82 Davidians and four law enforcement agents. In November of 1993, the enacting of the Brady Handgun Violence Prevention Act of 1992 additionally fueled the movement. The movement reached its peak in 1996 with over 850 groups believed to be operating within the US.

Noteworthy militia activity from 1995 to 1999:

- 11/09/95: Oklahoma Constitutional Militia members are arrested as they plan to bomb the Southern Poverty Law Center (SPLC), gay bars, and abortion clinics.
- 12/18/95: A drum of ammonium nitrate and fuel oil is found behind the IRS building in Reno, Nevada, the device failed to explode. An anti-government tax protestor is later arrested for the incident.
- 01/18/96: A member of the Aryan Republican Army (ARA) is arrested in Ohio after a shoot out with the FBI. The ARA was also associated with 22 bank robberies between 1994 and 1996.

UNCLASSIFIED//LAW ENFORCEMENT SENSITIVE (U//LES)

- 01/01/96: 12 members of an Arizona Militia group called Viper Team were arrested on Conspiracy, Weapons, and Explosives charges after they were caught doing surveillance on government buildings.
- 07/27/96: A bomb is detonated at the Atlanta Olympic Park, killing one person and injuring 100. Eric Robert Rudolph is later arrested and linked to other bombings at abortion clinics and a gay bar.
- 10/11/96: Seven members of the Mountaineer Militia were arrested for plotting to blow up the FBI fingerprint records center in West Virginia.
- 07/04/97: Members of a splinter group of the Third Continental Congress were arrested in the process of plotting attacks on military bases. The group thought that many military installations were training United Nations troops that were planning on attacking U.S. Citizens.
- 03/18/98: Members of the North American Militia were arrested on firearms charges; prosecutors claimed that the group conspired to bomb federal buildings in Michigan, a television station, and an interstate highway interchange.
- 12/05/99: Members of the California based San Joaquin Militia were charged with conspiracy to bomb critical infrastructure sites in hopes of provoking an insurrection. The leaders of the organization also plead guilty to plotting to kill a federal judge.
- 12/08/99: The leader of a militia coalition known as the Southeastern States Alliance was charged with conspiracy to bomb energy facilities in order to cause power outages in Florida and Georgia.

Decline of the Movement:

The militia movement began to decline after the 1995 Oklahoma City Bombing and raids on the Montana Freeman and Republic of Texas in 1996 and 1997. Poor public opinion of the militia movement and increased attention from law enforcement caused many of the uncommitted members to leave the movement. Many of the hardcore militia members grew angry with the militia for not mobilizing in response to perceived government aggressions. Some of these fanatics would splinter into smaller or underground groups adhering to the principles of "leaderless resistance".

Many militia groups began to rally members in the belief that the government would collapse due to the Y2K scare. This theory claimed that the government would collapse due to computers not being able to handle the transition from the 1900's to the 2000's. The militia's inaccurate assessment of the Y2K threat badly damaged its reputation. Additionally, thoughts that President George W. Bush was sympathetic to their situation, and a wave of patriotism after 9/11 would further diminish the militia movement.

The Militia Post September 11, 2001:

During this time period the militia had lost the attention of the mainstream media and public, but it continued to exist. The SPLC reports that between the Oklahoma City Bombing in 1995 and 2005 that roughly 60-rightwing extremist plots were uncovered.

Noteworthy militia activity from 2000 to 2008

- 03/09/00: The former leader of the Texas Militia was arrested for conspiracy to attack the Houston Federal Building.
- 03/01/01: A former Colonel in the Kentucky Militia peppered a deputy's car with semi automatic weapons fire during a traffic stop.
- 02/08/02: Two members of a group called Project 7 were arrested for plotting to kill judges and law enforcement officers in order to kick off the revolution.
- 09/03/02: A plot by the Idaho Mountain Boys Militia to murder a federal judge and a police officer and then break a friend out of jail was uncovered.
- 07/07/03: A Michigan Militia member killed a Michigan State Trooper that attempted to serve him a warrant.

UNCLASSIFIED//LAW ENFORCEMENT

- 10/25/04: A farmhand in Tennessee was arrested for attempting to obtain ingredients for sarin gas and C-4 explosives in order to conduct Anti Semitic and government attacks.
- 06/29/07: Six members of the Alabama Free Militia were arrested on weapons and explosives charges. An ATF agent would go on to testify that five of the men were planning an attack on Mexicans in a town near Birmingham.
- 12/08: National Guard and Reserve facilities received packages with anti New World Order rhetoric. This would occur within a week of hoax anthrax mailings to State Governor's offices.

Reemergence of the Movement:

Rightwing extremists and militia leaders continuously exploit current world events in order to increase participation in their movements. Due to the current economical and political situation, a lush environment for militia activity has been created. Unemployment rates are high, as well as cost of living expenses. Additionally, President Elect Barack Obama is seen as tight on gun control and many extremists fear that he will enact firearms confiscations. White supremacists from within the militia movement have further become angered due to the election of the first African American President. Many constitutionalists within the movement have claimed that President Elect Obama does not meet the residency requirements to hold the office of President, and therefore his election is unconstitutional.

Newer versions of the NWO conspiracy have been concocted in order to empower the movement. The NWO is seen as using law enforcement, military, national guard, and federal agencies in order to carry out its elitist one world government. Law enforcement and military forces are believed to be utilized in order to confiscate firearms and place individuals into FEMA concentration camps. This scenario has received additional attention due to the US Army NORTHCOM assigning homeland security functions to an active duty Infantry Brigade. The movement sees this brigade as the force that will take their firearms and that the unit is in violation of the Posse Comitatus Act. There are also concerns that the banking and media infrastructure are also being controlled by the Jewish elite and that these leaders are members of the NWO. There is a great deal of anger towards the Federal Reserve System (FRS) and all forms of tax collection.

Ammunition Accountability Act: The Ammunition Accountability Act has been up for legislation in most states. This legislation would require that an ID number be engraved on the round of all ammunition and this ammo could in turn be linked to a place of purchase and the purchaser. Some states have added a clause to the act making it a misdemeanor to possess unregistered ammunition. Bill did not pass in Missouri

Bullet with engraved tracking number

Anticipation of the economic collapse of the US Government: Many militia organizations feel that the U.S. government will fall due to economic or racial issues. They believe that during the chaotic fall of the government, moves will be made to install Martial Law, confiscate firearms, and imprison many citizens. This fear has recently been heightened by a report from a Russian Economic analyst, Igor Panarin. Panarin predicted that the U.S. would collapse and fraction into six different regions controlled by foreign governments. Panarin goes on to say that as early as the autumn of 2009, the economic crisis will lead to a civil war.

Possible Constitutional Convention (Con Con): Currently 32 states have called for a Constitutional Convention (Con Con) that will add amendments to the U.S. Constitution. The Con Con will be held if two more states request it. The convention is planned specifically for the reason of adding a balanced budget amendment to the Constitution. The Militia Movement is concerned that if a Con

Con is held, the 1st and 2nd amendments will be altered or removed.

North American Union (NAU): Conspiracy theorists claim that this union would link Canada, The United States, and Mexico. The NAU would unify its monetary system and trade the dollar for the AMERO. Associated with this theory is concern over a NAFTA Superhighway, which would fast track trade between the three nations. There is additional concern that the NAU would open up the border causing security risks and free movement for immigrants.

Kansas City and the Smart Port are seen as the hub of the North American Union

Universal Service Program: Statements made by President Elect Obama and his chief of staff have led extremists to fear the creation of a Civilian Defense Force. This theory requires all citizens between the age of 18 and 25 to be forced to attend three months of mandatory training.

Radio Frequency Identification (RFID): There is a fear that the government will enforce mass RFID human implantations. This process would make it possible for the government to continually know the locations of all citizens.

Militia Trends:

Ideologies

Christian Identity: Religious ideology popular in extreme right-wing circles. Adherents believe that whites of European descent can be traced back to the "Lost Tribes of Israel." Many consider Jews to be the satanic offspring of Eve and the Serpent, while non-whites are "mud people" created before Adam and Eve.

White Nationalist: Many white supremacists, National Socialists "Neo-Nazi", and skinheads are drawn to the movement and its anti government, Semitic, and anti-immigration rhetoric.

Sovereign Citizen: Individuals that see themselves as Sovereign Citizens question the legitimacy of the federal government. They argue that the government has gotten away from the intent of the Constitution and is thus not valid. These groups are strong states rights advocates, but see the County Sheriff as the highest position of authority. These groups and individuals are well known for failure to register vehicles and driving without valid licenses. Sovereign Citizens have been known to issue their own license plates and drivers licenses and to issue summons to appear in "Common Law" courts.

Militant Abortion: Anti Abortionists have been known to take up arms in support of their beliefs. Eric Rudolph who was responsible for the Atlanta Olympic Park Bombing and abortion clinics was an anti abortionist.

Tax Resisters: This movement is strongly in opposition to the collection of federal income taxes. Individuals in this movement generally believe that income taxes are invalid or the tax laws do not apply to them.

Anti- Immigration: Some militia organizations have been formed solely for the purpose of countering the threat of illegal immigration. Extremists will argue that immigrants are taking the jobs of U.S. Citizens during times of high unemployment. Additionally, illegal immigrants are seen as sucking up government resources without paying taxes. Some militia units patrol the border in order to safeguard against drug smugglers, gangs, or violent immigrants.

Training

Utilization of MILSIM: Militia members have been attending Military Simulation (MILSIM) events in order to increase their combat readiness. MILSIM is a realistic combat sport in which two forces, some times up to the platoon level, utilize paintball, Airsoft, or MILES gear to conduct realistic war games. The desire to increase the realism of the MILSIM has drawn members to seek and conduct military leadership, planning, communications, navigations, and tactics training.

Militia and Survival Training events: Regional training events are being held with the intent of teaching individuals how to establish militia organizations. These events usually focus on individual soldier skills, land navigation, and marksmanship. Some events have been set up in order to prepare for joint operations between militia organizations.

Communications: The use of short wave rave radios for communication and broadcasts is common among most militia groups. These groups communicate through forums, yahoo groups, blogs, and social networking sites. Websites and online talk shows have been established to push rhetoric, usually a skewed version of current events.

Recruitment: Militias are recruiting members and supporters through the following means: gun shows, online forums, websites, social networking sites, and informal social networks. Additionally, militia recruitment may be done at events or meetings held by organizations that share ideologies with the militia.

Organization

Public Groups These organizations hold training events that are open to the public and generally recruit publicly. These groups desire to aid the County Sheriff or Governor in emergencies such as a natural disaster. It is not uncommon for these groups to be seen in public doing community service related work. Public groups are less likely to publicly push malicious rhetoric, and have a traditional military style chain of command and leadership structure. These groups have been known to form underground units and provide training and guidance to new or forming organizations.

Underground Groups These groups primarily adhere to the principles of Louis Beam's philosophy of leaderless resistance. This philosophy advocates small autonomous cells driven by ideology rather than by the direction of leaders. These groups are difficult to gather intelligence on, as no one outside of the cell would be aware of the organization or its plans. Individuals or "lone wolves" have also been known to adhere to the principles of leaderless resistance in order to perform or plot acts of violence.

Committees of Safety (CoS) Organization established to lobby government officials and confront corruption. These groups claim to be a voice of the people and usually control or associate with militia organizations in their region. These organizations are targeted at the county level but are also forming state and national level organizations.

UNCLASSIFIED//LAW ENFOR

Covenant Militia Communities Community of militia members that attempt to create a sovereign township. In the 1990's there were an estimated eight of these communities identified across the country.

Militia Associations These organizations attempt to network various militias through the Internet, meetings, or events. Groups such as the American Constitutional Militia Network (ACMN) and the Rogue Nations Eternal Militia (RNEM) are active online communications sites for militia members and organizations. Missouri Militia members during a Field Training Event (FTX)

Implications for Law Enforcement

There are significant differences between the 1990's era militias and those of today, most notably:

Leadership training: Militia members are receiving advanced leadership and operational planning training. This has allowed for the establishment of a strong Non Commissioned Officer Corps (NCO) within groups. An NCO Corps allows operations to be run at the fire team and squad size. This enables units to conduct multiple operations simultaneously; "Complex attacks". This training will also enable individuals to form and train their own organizations.

You are the Enemy: The militia subscribes to an anti-government and NWO mindset, which creates a threat to law enforcement officers. They view the military, National Guard, and law enforcement as a force that will confiscate their firearms and place them in FEMA concentration camps.

Implications for Missouri

Infrastructure at risk in Missouri:

Detention Centers: Rightwing extremists believe that there are at least three FEMA concentration camps in the state of Missouri:

- The Former Richards-Gebaur AFB in Grandview, MO
- Ft. Leonard Wood, MO
- Camp Crowder in Neosho, MO

North American Union (NAU): The Kansas City "Smart Port" which is a hub for fast tracked trade and distribution between the U.S. and Mexico is seen as the Hub of the North American Union. A shipping and distribution center is under way in the former Richard-Gebaur AFB in Grandview, MO. This facility is seen as both a FEMA concentration center and a facility for the NAU.

Federal Reserve Banks: Members of the militia movement are strongly against the FRS and see it as a mechanism of the elitist New World Order. In November End the FED protests were held nationwide at Federal Reserve Banks in opposition to the FRS. Many right-wing extremists oppose the FRS and propose a system that would be backed by gold. Federal Reserve banks may also draw attention from anti bail out protestors and activists.

National Guard Facilities: National Guard armories and facilities are seen as potential staging areas for NWO troops. Additionally, there are fears that the National Guard will be forced to confiscate weapons and enforce marshal law. Some individuals in the movement have argued that National Guard soldiers and units have had their weapons confiscated, have been transformed into non combat units such as supply, transportation, or medical elements, or are being deployed overseas in order to weaken the defense of the State against the NWO.

Federal Buildings or facilities: Within the movement there is a distrust and anger towards the federal government primarily towards the IRS, ATF, FBI, FEMA.

Common Militia Symbols:

Political and Anti-Government Rhetoric:

UNCLASSIFIED//LAW ENFORCEMENT SENSITIVE (U//LES)

Political Paraphernalia: Militia members most commonly associate with 3rd party political groups. It is not uncommon for militia members to display Constitutional Party, Campaign for Liberty, or Libertarian material. These members are usually supporters of former Presidential Candidate: Ron Paul, Chuck Baldwin, and Bob Barr.

Anti-Government Propaganda: Militia members commonly display picture, cartoons, bumper stickers that contain anti-government rhetoric. Most of this material will depict the FRS, IRS, FBI, ATF, CIA, UN, Law Enforcement, and "The New World Order" in a derogatory manor. Additionally, Racial, anti-immigration, and anti-abortion, material may be displayed by militia members.

Militia Symbols:

Gadsden Flag: created by General Christopher Gadsden and utilized in colonial America. This is the most common symbol displayed by militia members and organizations.

Hutaree Militia: Patch of a popular Michigan based militia that has a presence and influence in many states.

Sovereign Citizen: Flags usually displayed by Sovereign citizens in order to represent sovereign "common law" jurisdiction.

Molon Labe: Greek phrase that translates to "Come and take them!" or "Over my dead body", phrase originated during the Spartan and Persian battle at Thermopylae and was recently made popular by the movie 300.

Nine Stripes of the Sons of Liberty: Sons of Liberty was a secret society of patriots during the American Revolutionary war. Many militia members claim the Sons of Liberty as part of their heritage.

First Navy Jack: Continental Navy flag, which is also, displayed with a stretched out rattlesnake and the inscription "Don't Tread on Me".

Literature and Media Common to the Militia:

The Turner Diaries: Novel that depicts the violent revolution of the United States Government and a war that leaves only a white population. This book was promoted by Timothy Mcveigh and said to be the motivation behind the Oklahoma City Bombing.

Side note: When this report was released to law enforcement nation wide, many officers were outraged and before long copies were released to radio host Alex Jones, who brought it to the attention of the world. Through many grass root efforts conducted by my organizations and many others across The United States, this report was pulled from circulation and many apologies were made by the leadership all the way from Missouri State government officials to the top players at The Department Of Homeland Security. On the remaining pages of this eBook, you will see letters sent to the governor of Missouri by Ron Paul's Campaign For Liberty and my own letters and commentaries which all helped to defeat this obvious attempt to turn law enforcement against patriotic and concerned citizens within America.

March 17, 2009

Dear Friends of Liberty,

Maybe you've heard, or maybe not, but the Missouri State Police think you might be a security threat. Why? Because you support Ron Paul and the Campaign for Liberty. Also, because maybe you own guns, oppose abortion or home school. Even, and I'm serious, because you support the U.S. Constitution. I know, it's ridiculous...and probably steams you a bit. But here at Campaign for Liberty we are going to give this foolishness the treatment it deserves. More on that in a moment. Let me give you a bit more background. As you may be aware by now, the Missouri Information Analysis Center (MIAC) recently released a report titled, "The Modern Militia Movement" to over one thousand Missouri law enforcement officers.

What is the Missouri Information Analysis Center? According to its website, "MIAC is the mechanism to collect incident reports of suspicious activities to be evaluated and analyzed in an effort to identify potential trends or patterns of terrorist or criminal operations within the state of Missouri. MIAC will also function as a vehicle for two-way communication between federal, state and local law enforcement community within our region."

The MIAC warned officers that violent militia members are "usually" supporters of presidential candidates like Ron Paul and are also known for opposition to things like the Federal Reserve and the income tax. The "study" was undoubtedly written by some university liberal who knows nothing of the hundreds of thousands of Missourians who share our values. I can only imagine how many hundreds of thousands of Missouri tax dollars funded this. Both Ron Paul and Campaign for Liberty champion principles of freedom, peace, and prosperity. We believe that the Founder's vision for America can be reclaimed through education and peaceful activism. It is a common practice of elitist intellectuals and backroom bureaucrats to attempt to crowd everyone into groups and stick labels on them, especially when it involves those who support a Constitutionally-limited government. Anthony Gregory, editor-in-chief at Campaign for Liberty, has posted an excellent new article on our site concerning government broad-brush fear campaigns. It is important that we respond in the right way when faced with such a government labeling, and the proper way is to go straight to the top in Missouri. The way to fight thugs and ignorant people in authority is not to cower or rage, but to proudly proclaim who you are and what you believe. That's why I urge you to sign our Citizen's Petition here today. Our petition spells out in no uncertain terms who we are and what we believe. And it reminds those in charge of enforcing Missouri's laws that we are citizen activists who will not be intimidated nor embarrassed into silence. Simply owning a gun does not make you a threat. It means you are a free citizen. Supporting our Constitution does not make you worthy of a watch list, it makes you a Patriot. So please, sign our Citizen's Petition today. Be sure to stay tuned for more information on how we plan to respond to the MIAC. Finally, I want to ask you a final favor. If you can, please join us next week as we gather in St. Louis for the first Campaign for Liberty Regional Conference and show the people of Missouri what Campaign for Liberty truly stands for and represents.

We will be hosting a free event on Friday Night with Ron Paul and Judge Andrew Napolitano that is open to the public, and the conference will be highlighted by grassroots training on Saturday, March 28. Learning how to properly mobilize in order to implement liberty-based legislation is absolutely critical to our success as a movement, and our Regional Conference will provide you with the tools you need as we move forward.

Liberty is never free, and demands vigilance.

I look forward to seeing you in St. Louis for an exciting weekend of celebration and training!

In Liberty,

John Tate

President, Campaign for Liberty

P.S. And don't forget to fill out our Citizen's Petition, which we will deliver to the Missouri Governor and Attorney General.

THE STATE OF MISSOURI TARGETS PATRIOTIC CITIZENS

By B.A. Brooks
Missouri Resident
March 18 2009

"Law enforcement has no reason to fear us, as we should have no reason to fear law enforcement."

1. If you support Ron Paul, you have just been named a right wing extremist/terrorist by The State Of Missouri!
2. If you support The U.S. Constitution, you have just been named a right wing extremist/terrorist by The State Of Missouri!
3. If you believe there is a New World Order, you have just been named a right wing extremist/terrorist by The State Of Missouri!

The MIAC report is very misleading and unrepresentative of those of us here in Missouri who are proud American Patriots. The MIAC recently released their report on the modern militia to law enforcement, which weaves truth, lies and misconceptions into an 8 page document in a definite effort to draw lines in the sand between Missouri Law Enforcement and anyone who questions authority. Let me quote Benjamin Franklin: "It is the first responsibility of every citizen to question authority!",

#1. THE MODERN MILITIA

Over the past few decades a definite plan has been implemented to deface U.S. Militia Units and Organizations by our own Government. This is very clear to anyone who has been reading their media blitzes on the subject for any period of time. If you know about the history of our country then you clearly understand the purpose of the militia and why our forefathers gave us this tool to use in order to protect our freedoms from an overpowering and corrupt government. We The People! Militias are good and a very large part of who we are as a people and how we got to be Americans and U.S. Citizens. Read about our history as a country and you will understand this better. There are many organizations such as The Klu Klux Klan who have now changed their look by wearing camouflage clothing, but they are in no way connected to The American Militia. Still the same, much effort has been made by our government and the media to connect these rouge organizations to the militia movement as a means to discredit the movement and blacken our eye in the public view. The reason that our government and military do not want citizens to start and join militias, is they understand very clearly that our forefathers gave us the militia in order to preserve the constitution by any means necessary, including bloodshed. Although when the MIAC speak of our feelings about The United Nations, they are correct! I Say That Blue Helmets Will Make Great Targets If The UN Is Ever On American Soil! No foreign troops will ever be permitted to police our citizens and we will fight to the death against any outside military forces crossing onto U.S. Soil! We also have a constitutional right to take back our government using force if and when we the people feel that our government is not working in our best interest any longer. Now you can see why the U.S. Government and Military are running scared right now. GUILT And FEAR!

#2. THE NEW WORLD ORDER

If you do not know this fact, then you will be shocked about the date when it was first announced publicly.

George Bush Sr. Announces The New World Order on September 11th 1991 exactly ten years to the day before 9/11.

Ever since Bush Sr. made this first announcement, politician after politician has used this term to describe what they want to see happen. A New World Order! What's so very alarming is the fact that those of us who knew a little about tyranny before this announcement, also knew about this concept. So when Bush Sr. started using this term, we all knew that moment that the NWO had begun and it was no longer just a conspiracy. Now every world politician is using the term. Obama is included! GLOBALIZATION = THE NEW WORLD ORDER! The MIAC is trying to make concerned American citizens out to look unstable or crazy for believing that a The New World Order exists, while in reality our global politicians are using the term on a daily basis. Deployed If a truth is often a great lie."

#3. CONSPIRACY

In their document, the MIAC has stated what modern militia members believe, while the truth is that most of these issues are not beliefs but actual concerns. There is a vast difference between believing something is happening and being concerned that something is not happening. Confused? Let's break it down by starting with The SPP, also called the North American Union. Go here to read the government's website on this issue: (Link) Globalization has been taking place for many years now and include many new Unions throughout the world. The European Union, The African Union, The Asian Union, The Mediterranean Union, The South American Union and so on..... Does it not concern you that there will be a North American Union? It should! Now let us talk about the Richards Gebaur connections to The SPP/NAU. I broke The Richards Gebaur story in Jan. of 2008, and ever since have been under the microscope of many agencies. Why is this? Because I stumbled onto a huge story that has been kept a secret for many years. The MIAC say that we believe FEMA Camps are being built on this site. That is simply not true! It is true that there are rumors of such things, but that does not mean we all believe it to be true. That is one reason I did my investigations, was to prove or disprove these reports that are everywhere. I make it very clear that I did not see any evidence and shipping goods across North America and the world. I have also made it clear that all of the supposed prison train cars that I have seen reported on the internet, are merely car and automotive haulers. The benches are really ramps to drive the cars on, and the shackles are really just chains to secure the automobiles with. I publicly debunked reports of markers being placed on mailboxes of patriots to help identify Red list pickups, by letting concerned Americans know that these are merely ways to show the newspaper man what houses get delivery and how frequent. There is much bad information weaved within the real news stories in an attempt to hide the truth. There is now a witch hunt going on over the economic debacle that we now find ourselves in. Many fingers are being pointed as committees and commissions seek out those who have done wrong and helped cause the collapse. The amount of Government and Military appropriations is beyond imagination and alone is enough for U.S. Citizens to take back our country and kick these big spending covert agencies and their activities to the curb, AND THEY KNOW THIS! We the people have the real power and once we the people organize completely, those in our government and military understand that their day in the sunlight is long gone! At what point does a conspiracy become a reality or just a debunked news story? When the truth presents itself! As each day passes we learn more about the true inner workings of our military and government complex! Americans are waking up to the facts and are not happy with the ugly truth that has been revealing itself. Do we believe that all conspiracy stories are true? No! With that said, we the people have every right to dig and look into the secret activities of our government and military who are in reality suppose to represent The People! Not the government! All of these people actually work for the people and the rest are none of such things, but instead foisted by the people. When you look at all of the puzzle pieces, one will realize that our nation is way out of control and something must be done to make real change. There is simply so much government and military corruption that I can not list but a few brief topics here, or this editorial would turn into a very large volume of books! Simply follow the news stories here at <http://www.uaff.us>, and you will see very quickly what is real and what is not.

The total bottom line is that members and subscribers of our organizations spend more time researching corruption in our government and military, than researching all of the vast number of conspiracy theories floating around the internet.

"WE TRY TO FIND THE TRUTH IN LIES, BECAUSE EVERY LIE HIDES THE TRUTH INSIDE!" - B.A. Brooks

I see The Office For The State Of Missouri visiting this site often and after seeing the MIAC document, I now realize that they got much of their information off of The U.A.F.F. website. Many things on this site are not what we believe is happening but what we fear could happen. This MIAC report is very deceiving and is an obvious attempt to turn Missouri law enforcement agencies against it's citizens. I have personally made many attempts to open communication between the people and different levels of our leadership to no avail. I am a very easy person to contact yet no contact has ever been made. I have made it very clear that if any story on this website can be proven wrong, I will champion that cause. Show us the truth! That is all we want. Show us that FEMA did not give Haliburton over 300 million dollars for the construction of detention centers, show us that Chemtrails are not real, show us what HARRP is being used for, show us that the C.I.A. has not involved in drug trafficking, Show us where ALL the money is really going and has gone. If there is no AMERO coming then show us the proof! THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WANT TOTAL DISCLOSURE! We want the truth. and that The SPP/NAU is very much about globalization, big Law enforcement officers have no reason to fear us as we should have no reason to fear law enforcement. The fact is that many law enforcement officers are also U.A.F.F./A.R.M. Members and will not act upon any order that is in reality unconstitutional. Many government and military members are also U.A.F.F. Members officially and unofficially.

It is a sad day in America when one is targeted as a right wing extremist and a terrorist for believing in the preservation of our U.S. Constitution!

How long will it be before I am arrested and jailed for being a concerned American? This is now my question!

(I will update this with more info and commentary throughout the next few days)

March 20 2009: I wrote to the Governor a few days ago about The MIAC Report, just like I have asked all of my readers, subscribers and members to do as well. Today the Governor's office asked Major Ronald K. Replogle of The Missouri Highway Patrol to respond to my email with a personal phone call. Major Replogle oversees the Criminal Investigation Bureau, which has authority over the Crime Laboratory, Drug and Crime Control, Gaming, and Governor's Security Divisions and coordinates their activities with the troops. First let me say how impressed I was to see that a line of communication had been opened to me because I have written to many Governors over the last few years, and this is the first time I have ever gotten a phone call back. Second let me say that I have nothing but respect for the Major and all law enforcement officers. With that said, I will now pass on the information of our conversation. What the MAJOR said: I did not record our conversation so I will paraphrase. He talked first about the legalities of the release of this document, which really kind of surprised me. He said that this document was for law enforcement eyes only and that it was illegally released to the press. He said that not one single law enforcement officer that had received this document had issued a complaint, and that it was not just Missouri sensitive but sent out nationwide. This was a little shocking to me, because that is part of the reason the MIAC Report is blowing up right now. It is shocking because of who it is targeting. You and Me! I mentioned the Ron Paul connection and people being targeted for bumper stickers. His answer was that no profiling was happening in this manor, but if he is approaching a car with multiple stickers that are about gun rights and such, then he will be more alert than maybe he would a car without such stickers, but also said that the citizen would not be treated any differently because of these things but that the officer would be more alert to the fact that this car might have weapons inside it. I then mentioned the document's reference to The New World Order and that I believe there is a New World Order taking place because for the last few years I have heard every world leader speak of it. I asked him if that made me a right wing extremist? His answer was not until I commit a crime or a violent act. Good Answer! He said they do not care what a citizens beliefs are as long as no crimes are committed and no acts of violence. From here on out we had a very good talk , man to man and not citizen to law enforcement. I told him some of our views from within the patriot movement and he told me about some of his views being an officer. He promised me that no citizens are being targeted or singled out in any way for what we believe or how we choose to live our lives. He assured me that only those who commit a crime or violent act because of their beliefs will be arrested and or imprisoned. The Major made it clear that this document refers to only a very small faction of radicals within the militia movement. This made sense to me because I know this to be a fact! Anyone who knows me, reads my commentaries or has watched my media understands that I have spent many years trying to organize US militias and found that many groups are only using the movement to hide their true activities. These are all radical religious and also radical racist groups. True militia and patriots dedicate our lives to protect all people no matter of race, religion, gender or birth origin. In closing I did say that I would like to see this document revised, but The Major said that the document had just been taken wrong and that a few things could have been worded differently. So the bottom line in my perspective is that this document that was put out by The MIAC, is very scary indeed and the fact that all patriots are going to be targeted because of this document is also very clear to me. It is like I told the Major, an example is Senator Dodd. If he just would of come out a week ago and said hey, we had to add some language to protect us from legal issue instead of lying about it and then having to backpedal and point fingers blaming everyone from the Fed to the treasury, there would not have been an issue. With all of the corruption and illegal activities we see everyday from our leadership in every walk of public life, it should be of no surprise that when a document like this finds it's way to the people that we would be alarmed. Benjamin Franklin said "It is the responsibility of every American to question authority! The one good thing that did come out of this was communication has been established.

DHS Fusion Centers Trying To Turn Patriots Into Extremists

Update: Over the last several years many reports have been issued by different factions within our government and military describing right wing extremists. In the last several months our new fusion centers have been busy releasing new updated documents in a clear attempt to turn our nations law enforcement officers and active military against a new threat that is growing across The United States. They are saying that these threats are from new right wing extremists and hate groups that are now rising up from coast to coast. Unfortunately the very same people they are now pointing out are in actuality any American who decides to stand up and ask questions about anything we see as corrupt or unconstitutional within our government, military or police system. With all of the corruption exposed within this website it is easy to see why any person learning the truth about what our government and military have really been doing, would be fighting mad. It is also clear to me that the same agencies releasing these falsified documents must be scared as hell because they realize that there time could be short if we the people decide to stand up and revolt. The U.A.F.F. / A.R.M. / C.A.M. are not hate groups or involved with any racist agendas. We love all people and I have made this very clear in my radio interviews and my commentaries. We do believe that our government and military have gotten way too big which has led to corruption within all of it's walls. We are on the edge of becoming a police state and our government is riding a double edged sword between fascism and socialism. These reports say many true statements in describing our organizations beliefs, such as that we believe there is a new world order being established. Well, there is! It has been spoken of by every world leader starting with Bush Sr. on 09/11/1991 ten years to the day of 9/11. This is just one example and I will let you the reader research these claims by our country's leadership. After reading our mission statement and all our organizations updates, news releases and media, it is easy for any person to see that we promote non violence and are in no way a violent threat to law enforcement, military agencies, or citizens in any way. Who we are a threat to, is anyone within our government or military who has an agenda that is illegal or unconstitutional. We are exposing the truth on this simple website and for the time being the only thing that these officials can do is try and turn us all into right wing extremists when in reality our only crime is being concerned Americans who care enough about our country to stand up and say enough is enough. Sad really! The truth shall set us free!

JAMES MADISON

"Americans [have] the right and advantage of being armed, unlike the citizens of other countries whose governments are afraid to trust their people with arms."

SAMUEL ADAMS

"The Constitution shall never be construed to prevent the people of the United States, who are peaceable citizens from keeping their own arms . . ."

GEORGE MASON

"When the resolution of enslaving America was formed in Great Britain, the British Parliament was advised by an artful man, who was governor of Pennsylvania, to disarm the people; that it was the best and most effectual way to enslave them; but that they should not do it openly, but weaken them, and let them sink gradually...I ask, who are the militia? They consist of now of the whole people, except a few public officers. But I cannot say who will be the militia of the future day. If that paper on the table gets no alteration, the militia of the future day may not consist of all classes, high and low, and rich and poor..."

NOAH WEBSTER

"Before a standing army can rule, the people must be disarmed; as they are in almost every kingdom in Europe. The supreme power in America cannot enforce unjust laws by the sword; because the whole body of the people are armed, and constitute a force superior to any band of regular troops that can be, on any pretence, raised in the United States. A military force, at the command of Congress, can execute no laws, but such as the people perceive to be just and constitutional; for they will possess the power, and jealousy will instantly inspire the inclination, to resist the execution of a law which appears to them unjust and oppressive."

TENCHE COXE

"Who are the militia? Are they not ourselves? Is it feared, then, that we shall turn our arms each man gainst his own bosom. Congress have no power to disarm the militia. Their swords, and every other terrible implement of the soldier, are the birthright of an American...The unlimited power of the sword is not in the hands of either the federal or state governments, but, where I trust in God it will ever remain, in the hands of the people."

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

"They that can give up essential liberty to purchase a little temporary safety, deserve neither liberty nor safety."

RICHARD HENRY LEE

"A militia, when properly formed, are in fact the people themselves and include all men capable of bearing arms." "To preserve liberty, it is essential that the whole body of people always possess arms."

ELBRIDGE GERRY

"Whenever governments mean to invade the rights and liberties of the people, they always attempt to destroy the militia, in order to raise an army upon their ruins."

Rep. Elbridge Gerry of Massachusetts

GEORGE WASHINGTON

"The very atmosphere of firearms anywhere and everywhere restrains evil interference they deserve a place of honor with all that is good." "A free people ought not only to be armed..."

PATRICK HENRY

"The great object is that every man be armed. Everyone who is able may have a gun."

"Are we at last brought to such humiliating and debasing degradation that we cannot be trusted with arms for our defense? Where is the difference between having our arms in possession and under our direction, and having them under the management of Congress? If our defense be the real object of having those arms, in whose hands can they be trusted with more propriety, or equal safety to us, as in our own hands?"

Albert Einstein

Edmund Burke

Benjamin Franklin

George Orwell

"In a time of universal deceit, telling the truth becomes a revolutionary act"

Robert Kennedy

Sinclair Lewis

"When fascism comes to America, it will be wrapped in a flag and carrying a cross."
